SITE PHOTOGRAPHS for PROPOSED SHANGONI GATE DEVELOPMENT, KRUGER NATIONAL PARK
FEBRUARY 2017

Photo 1: Location of the preferred gate location

Photo 2: The existing ranger road to be upgraded.
Photo 3: The approximate location of the bridge over the Shingwedzi river.

Photo 4: Typical river bed character of the predominantly dry Shingwedzi river.
SITE PHOTOGRAPHS for PROPOSED SHANGONI GATE DEVELOPMENT, KRUGER NATIONAL PARK
FEBRUARY 2017

Photo 5: Typical bush veld to be cleared for the New road alignment (western end) dominated by Mopane veld.

Photo 6: The KNP boundary fence near the gate location.
Photo 7: Typical bush veld to be cleared for the New road alignment (eastern end) dominated by Mopane veld.

Photo 8: The Alternative 1 site for a tented camp with a scenic view over the Shingwedzi River.
SITE PHOTOGRAPHS for PROPOSED SHANGONI GATE DEVELOPMENT, KRUGER NATIONAL PARK
FEBRUARY 2017

Photo 9: The proposed Alternative 1 for a picnic site at the outer edge of the Shingwedzi River riparian zone.

Photo 10: The Alternative 1 site for a camping terrain with a scenic view over a hippo pool in the Shingwedzi River.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Photo 11: The alternatives for the picnic site, the camping terrain and tented camp are in mopane woodland at least 100 meters away from the Shingwedzi River riparian zone.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Photo 12: The existing low water bridge over the Shingwedzi River along the S52 road to Bataleur Camp</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

SITE PHOTOGRAPHS for PROPOSED SHANGONI GATE DEVELOPMENT, KRUGER NATIONAL PARK
FEBRUARY 2017
SITE PHOTOGRAPHS for PROPOSED SHANGONI GATE DEVELOPMENT, KRUGER NATIONAL PARK
FEBRUARY 2017

Photo 13: The vegetation community found along the edges of the ranger road to be upgraded.

Photo 14: One of many storm water drainage lines along the Shangoni Ranger road to be upgraded.