This edition’s featured park is Mapungubwe National Park

• Mapungubwe is located at the confluence of the Limpopo and Shashe Rivers where South Africa, Botswana and South Africa meet.
• It is a comfortable 5 hour drive from Gauteng via Polokwane and Alldays.
• It was where the Golden Rhino, the symbol on Limpopo Province was uncovered on an archeological dig at the Mapungubwe Ruins - one of South Africa’s oldest centres of civilization.
• The park is home to the big 5, is a birding and botanical paradise and has a remarkable diversity of landscapes and scenery.
• President Jan Smuts and Cecil John Rhodes both had houses in the park.
• There are 3 accessible accommodation units for guests with mobility challenges in the park (2 at Leokwe Camp and one at Limpopo Tented Camp) and accessible ablutions at Mazhou Campsite and accessible toilets at the park entrance, the confluence and the Interpretation Centre.
• Accessible features of the park include: a tree-top boardwalk, the 3 country confluence lookout points and the Interpretation Centre.
