Jacob Ntsie	yenigreens@gmail.com	Are purchase orders acceptable as proof of experience and / or trading track record?	Mandatory requirements refer to three No, refer to point (3) contactable reference letters
Jacob Ntsie	yenigreens@gmail.com	There are products to be supplied under this tender; therefore in terms of track record do we submit 3 letters for Eragrostis and 3 letters for Lucerne?	Mandatory requirements refer to three (3) letters. It can either be from Lucerne clients or a combination of Lucerne and Eragrostis
Jacob Ntsie	yenigreens@gmail.com	According to BoQ, table J, the West Coast National Park and Marakele National Park must be supplied with Eragrostis Grass. Is this correct?	West Coast and Marakele NP = incidental service for only supply and delivery of Lucerne.
Jacob Ntsie	yenigreens@gmail.com	We can't seem to find the annexure where prices for the Eragrostis grass should be quoted on EXW	Populate your own table and use the estimated annual requirement reflected on page 13 to provide a pricing schedule, please refer to the updated bid document
Jacob Ntsie	yenigreens@gmail.com	The projected quantities on the body of the document do not reconcile with the quantities on the annexure's i.e. Big Pack quantities on the body of the document amounts to 120 tons whereas on the annexure tables the quantity is 150 tons, which quantities takes precedence?	120 tons is the annual requirement.
Jacob Ntsie	yenigreens@gmail.com	Are custom stamped bills of entry export, showing customer, product and value of	Mandatory requirements refer to three No, only (3) contactable reference letters

Gordon Africa	gbafrica0110@gmail.com	Dear Charmaine ENQUIRY: GNP-024-20: Supply and Delivery of first grade Lucerne and Eragrostis grass to South African National Parks Producers of Lucerne / Eragrostis Grass in the Northern Cape who are members of the National African Farmer's Union – NC (NAFU – NC) would like to bid for the SANPARKS Tender GNP – 024 – 20. The farmers that do have the required product, do not all have the necessary resources (including transport) and compliance documents to respond meaningfully to the tender. It is only in collaboration that these farmers will be able to respond profoundly to the SANPARKS bid. NAFU suggested a Management Company to complete the bid, ensure delivery of the product as per specifications and serve as a single entry point for SANPARKS. The ManCo will manage the execution of the bid and serve as intermediary between SANPARKS and NAFU farmers. The question is if 10 farmers (for	I would advise that you submit both scenarios. This to avoid placing you at a disadvantage due to price. NAFU is a credible association representing the district farmers and therefore providing security for SANParks as a service provider. If NAFU carries the risk in totality an complies with the requested documents then SANParks can consider on the basis.

		example) want to bid, does each have to individually complete the tender documents or can a NAFU-appointed and approved Management Company complete one set of documents, complete a single bid on behalf of all participating farmers and enter into the contractual agreement with SANPARKS? If acceptable to SANPARKS, what are the conditions? NAFU – NC believes that this arrangement will enhance the participation of NAFU farmers in the SANPARKS bid.
Jacob Ntsie	yenigreens@gmail.com	Our business largely supplies a number of small – medium sized farmers who are into livestock production? Would letters from such entities be acceptable as reference for work done previously or current?	Yes, these letters will suffice.
Jacob Ntsie	yenigreens@gmail.com	In terms of the requirements for SLA's. Would letters from suppliers suffice as reasonable proof of access to commodities between ourselves and suppliers	Yes, these SLA will suffice.
